

Hawaiian Hula

'Hula is the language of the heart and therefore the heartbeat of the Hawaiian people.'

-- King David Kalakaua, the last reigning king of the Hawaiian Kingdom

Tired of the bitter New England winter?

Join us for a journey to the Hawaiian Islands!

Hula is much more than a Hawaiian dance. It is a visual expression of words, a way to tell the stories of the Hawaiian and Polynesian people. Come learn about the history and heritage of the Hawaiian people with a live demonstration of traditional Hawaiian hula featuring Tiare Kahana. Audiences will enjoy an interactive program of music, stories, song and dance while learning the history, legends, culture and language of Hawaii, New Zealand, Samoa and Tahiti.

Tuesday

February 9

6:30 pm

Cora J. Belden Library

Sponsored by the Friends of Cora J. Belden Library.

