October 15, 2001

To Rocky Hill Residents,

This document is the 2001 Plan of Conservation and Development for Rocky Hill, Connecticut. Following a public hearing on September 19, the Rocky Hill Planning & Zoning Commission adopted this Plan at a meeting on September 24, 2001. The Plan has an effective date of October 15, 2001.

It has been the Commission's goal to develop a Plan that reflects the consensus of the community and establishes a working blueprint for the future of Rocky Hill. As we have all worked together to develop the Plan, it is important to stress that the recommendations in the Plan are designed to:

- improve the overall quality of life in Rocky Hill, and
- promote the character of Rocky Hill.

We hope that all Rocky Hill residents will now work to implement the Plan.

Sincerely,

Jesse Harrison, Chairman
ROCKY HILL PLANNING & ZONING COMMISSION
